CAMPAN AND AND AND Miss Katherine Mackay at Southampton. Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERAL SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., June 28.—Miss Katherine Mackay made her first appearance in Southampton this summe on Saturday, being a guest of Mrs. Goodhue Livingston over Sunday. She is a most enthusiastic swimmer, was one of the first to, enjoy the surf yesterday. Sharing the fun and the recipients of good wishes on all sides were the Misses Helen and Margaret Krech, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Krech, whose engagements to L. Stewart Wing and William Sheffleld Cowles had been announced at an informal dinner to twenty of their young friends the even ing before. Both girls and their flances had been to the boat races at New London, and their arrival here Saturday followed by the news of their engagement caused a great ripple of excitement among their many friends.
